The 1977-1978 school year was one in which Norfolk Public Schools were criticized by many. But here at Norview, we got a totally different view of ourselves. We had pride in ourselves, loyalty to our Pilots, and used every opportunity to show everyone just how important we thought school spirit really was. No matter where one looked, he found the familiar words "Norview Pilots are number 1!"

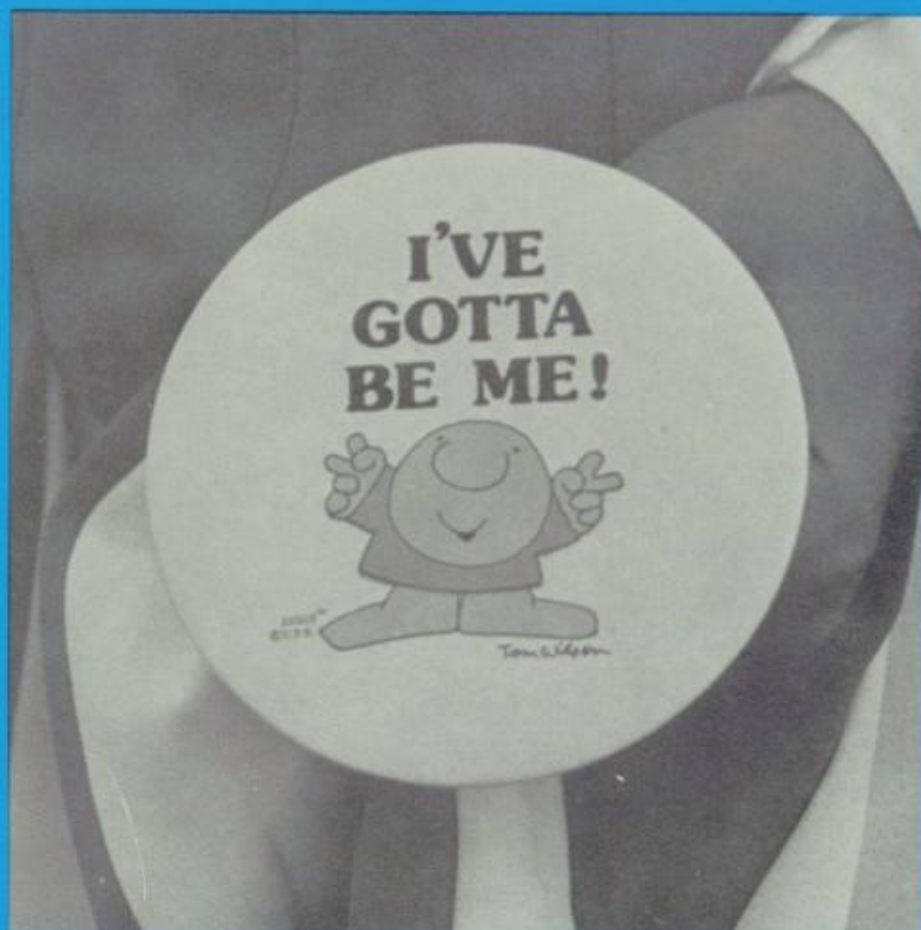

Everyone has the need to belong, and here at Norview no one should have felt left out. With over fifty extracurricular groups organized this year, there was something for everyone. The student who was active socially as well as academically gained many rewards. The greatest of these was the approval and friendship of others.

Often people got a little too involved with others and forgot just how unique they were. In the classroom, the individual was often overlooked. Tests were made for the average student even though no one fit this description. Students were classified as either Sophomores, Juniors, or Seniors and lumped in groups whether they liked it or not. Such generalizations tended to make people forget how special they were. It took special effort to make everyone aware that originality was 'in.'

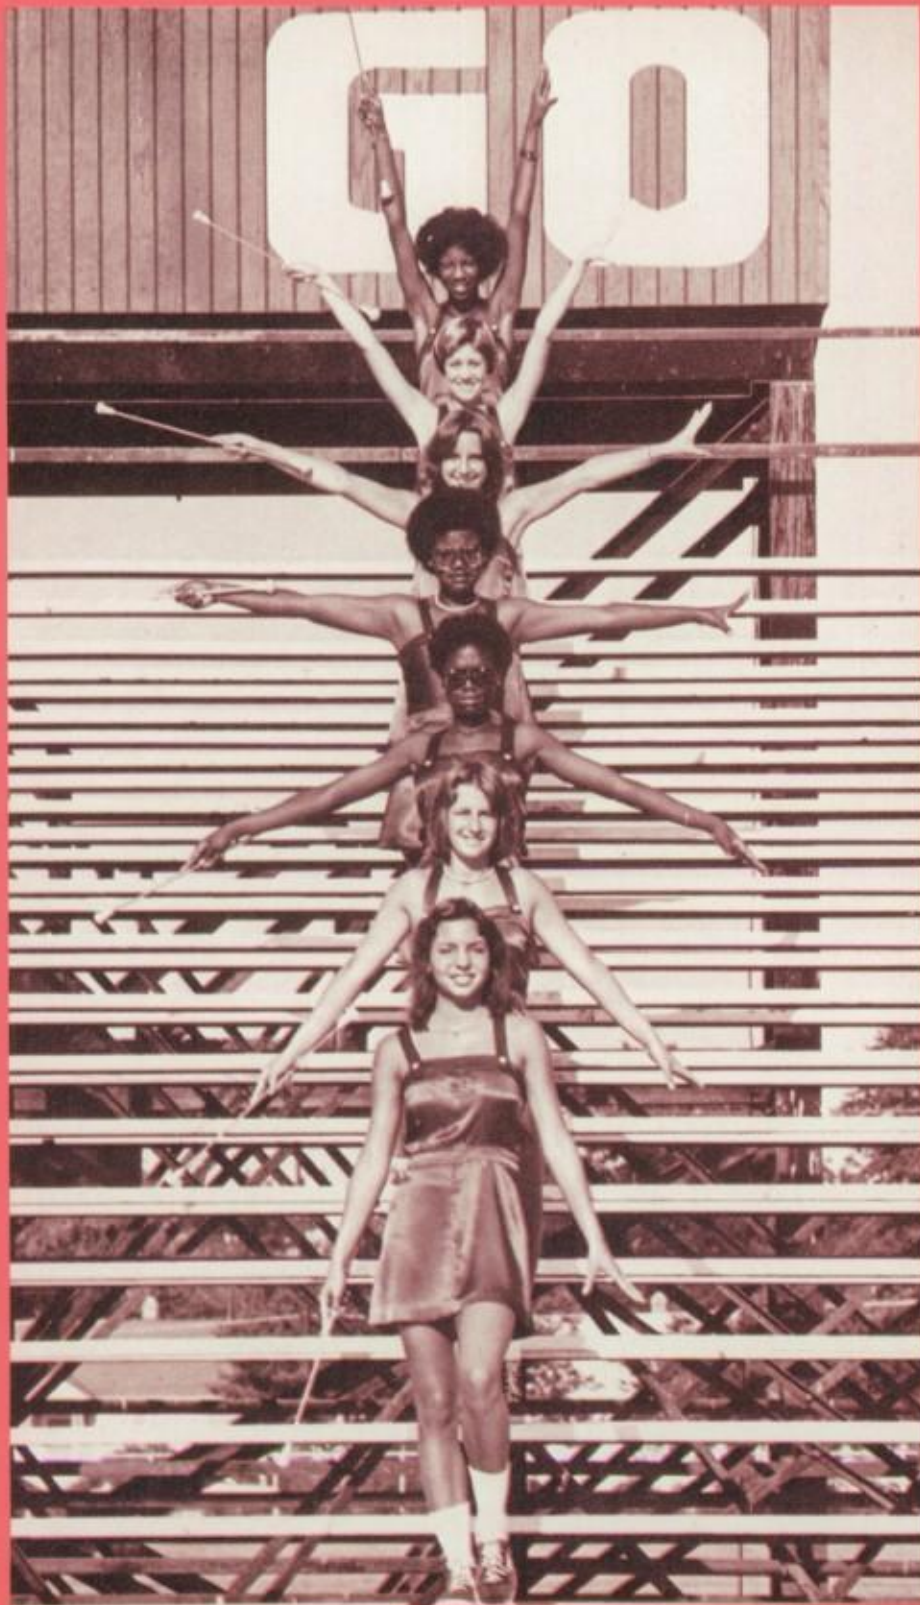

Summertime and warm temperatures mean different things to different students. Norview is really fortunate to be situated so near the ocean. Beaches are a favorite 'hang-out' for many, whether it is for reasons of recreation, sight-seeing, exercise, or just relaxation. Sunshine is the magic word that brings a smile to all.

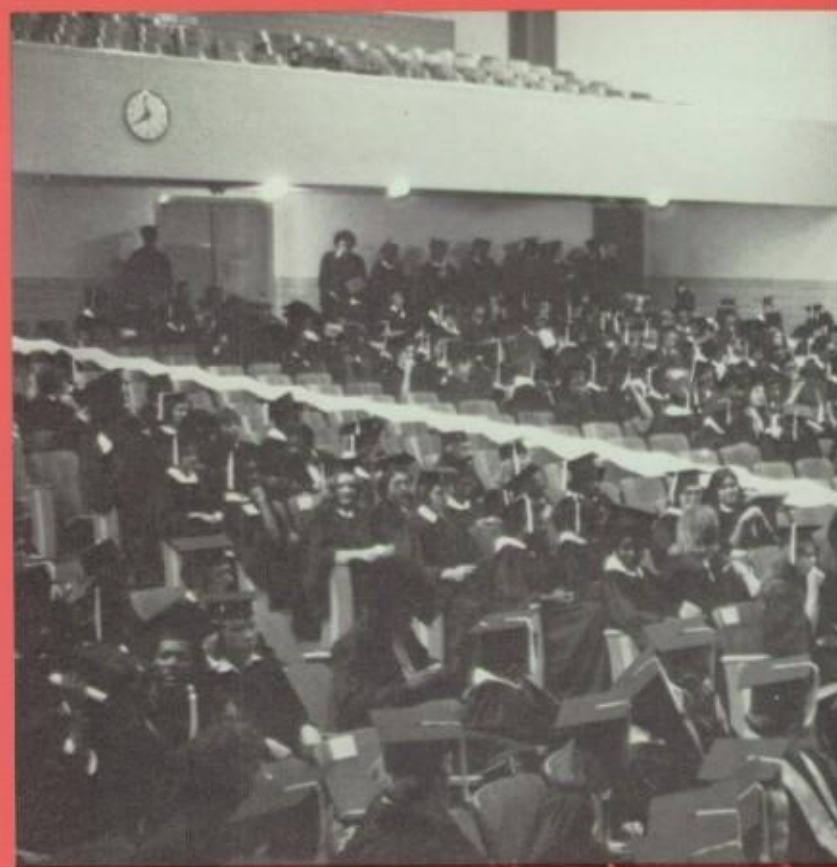

SUNS

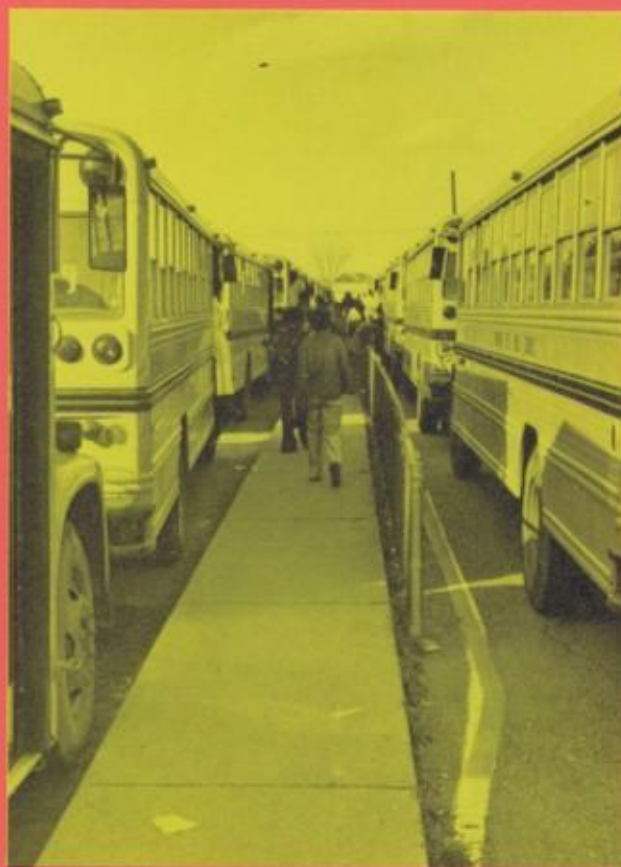

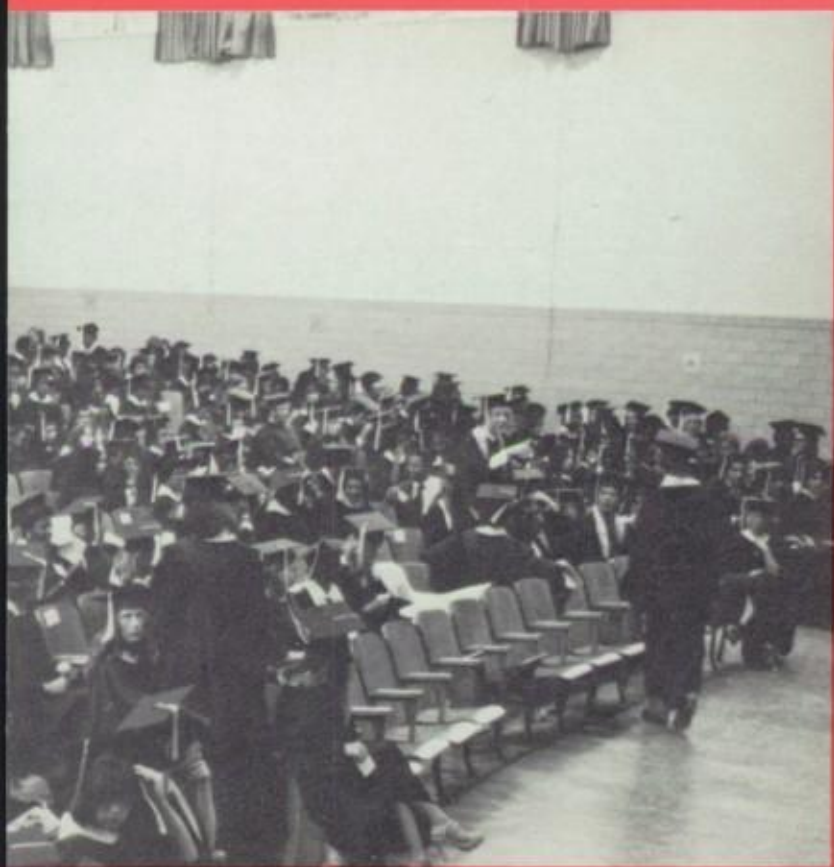

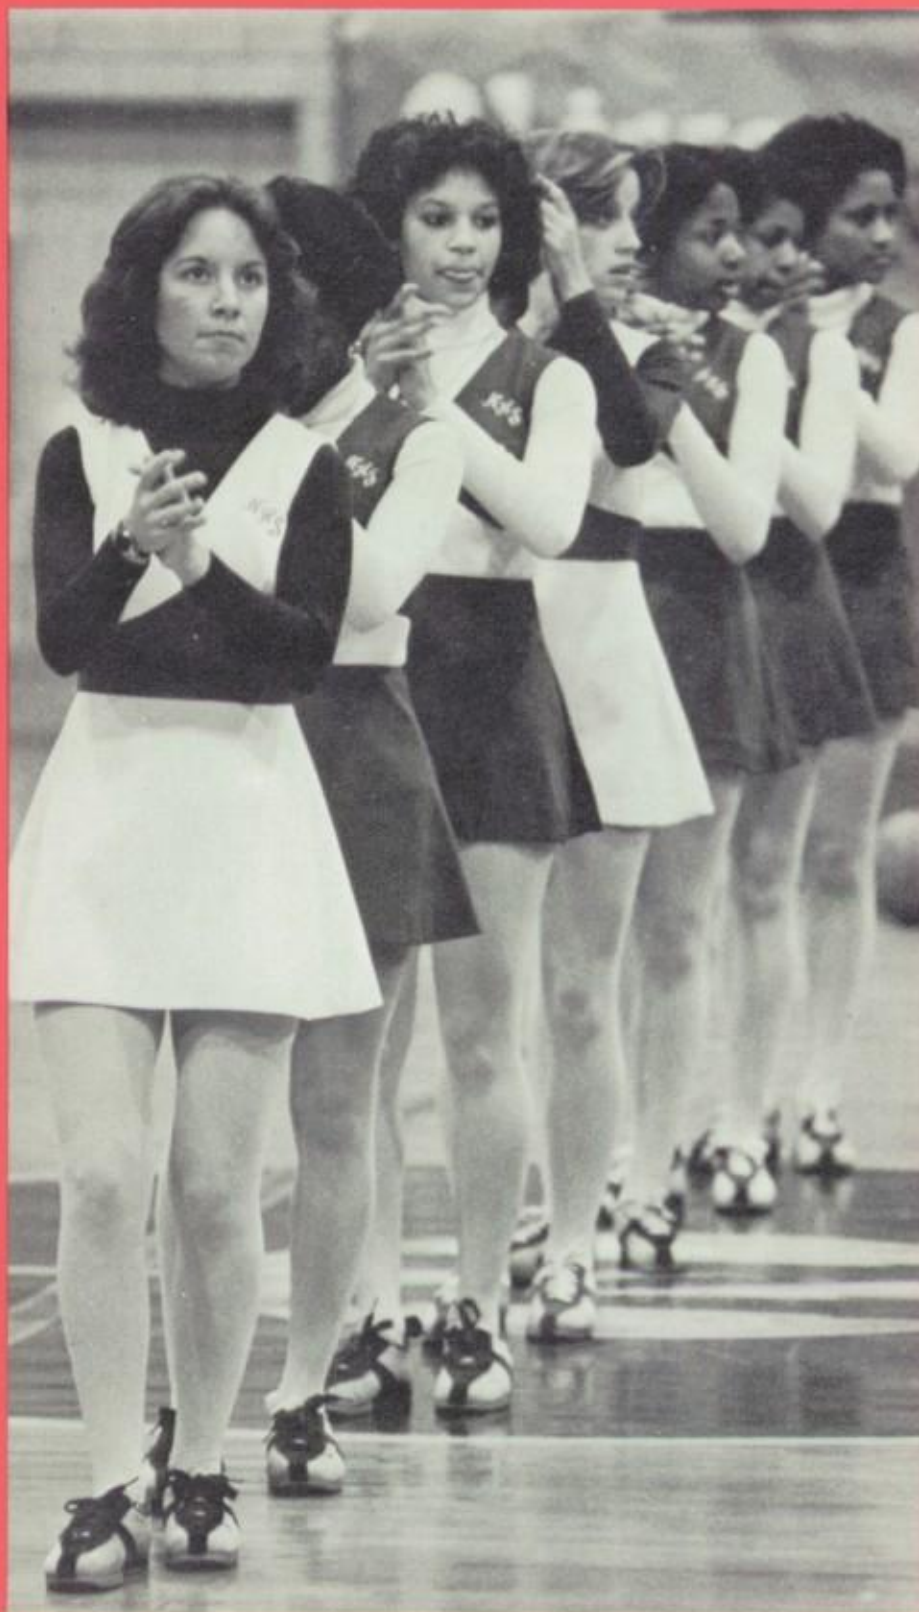

HINE!

"Keep your lines straight!" These words were heard echoing throughout the entire school. Cheerleaders, Majorettes, Flag Corps, Band, even gym students heard them all the time. Everything was regemented — on time, done neatly, arranged just so. Desks were arranged in five rows of seven, classes lasted forty-five minutes, and students even had to stand in line to get their lunch. There was no escaping from the straight and orderly. Evidence was everywhere.

Winter of 1977-1978 brought many changes to Norview. For the first time, students had to deal with snow which lasted for weeks. The subnormal temperatures and record-breaking snowfalls caused severe problems for Norfolk, a city so accustomed to mild winters. The most popular activity this winter was snow skiing. Several clubs organized weekend trips to the mountains to try out this new craze. These changes made it a memorable winter.

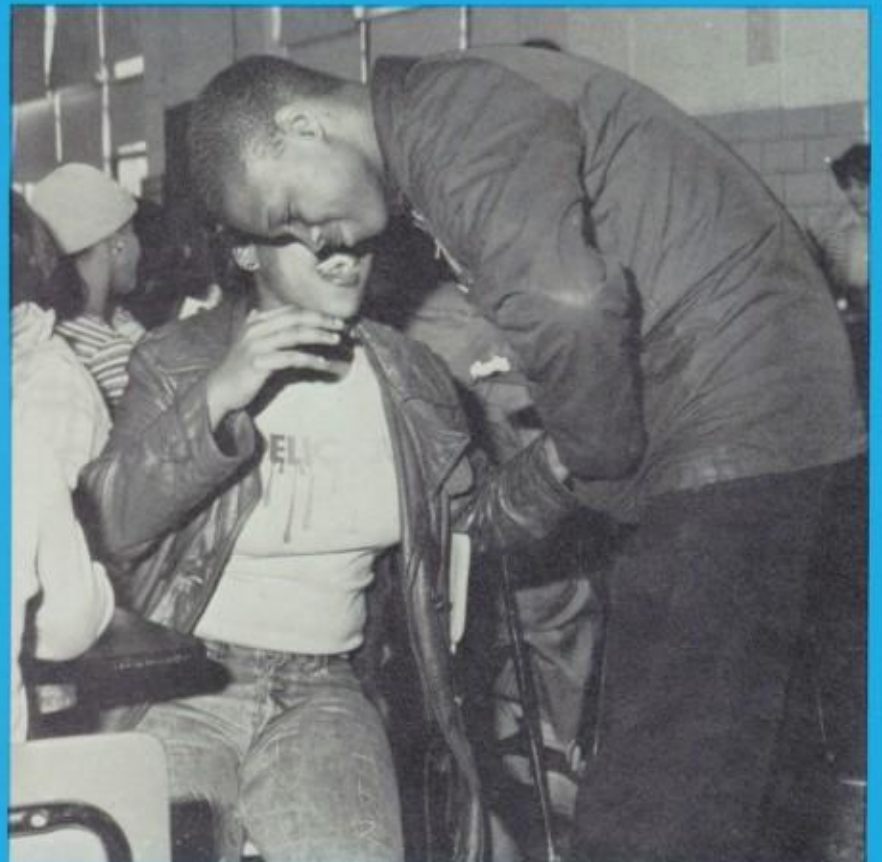

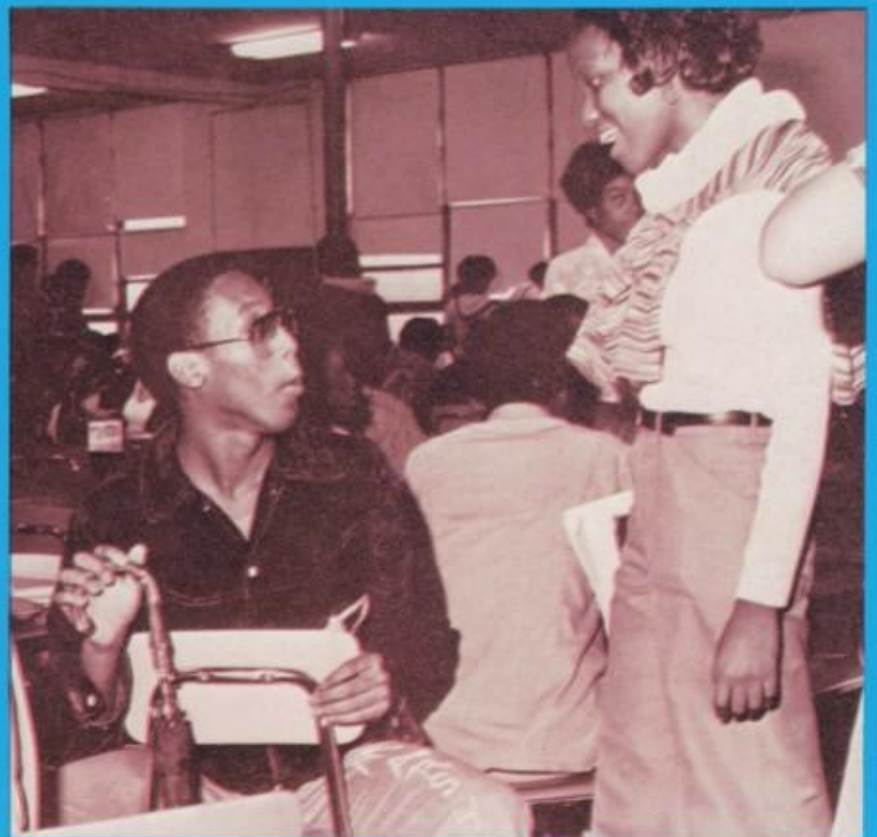

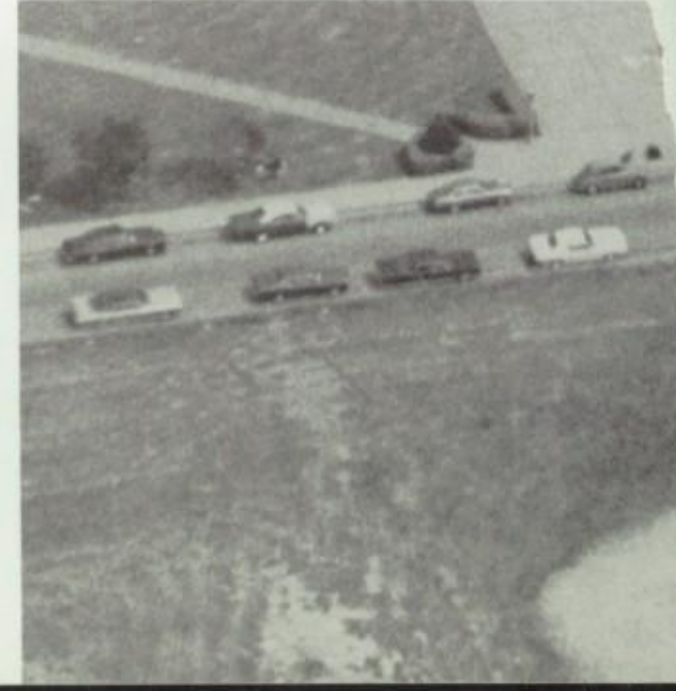

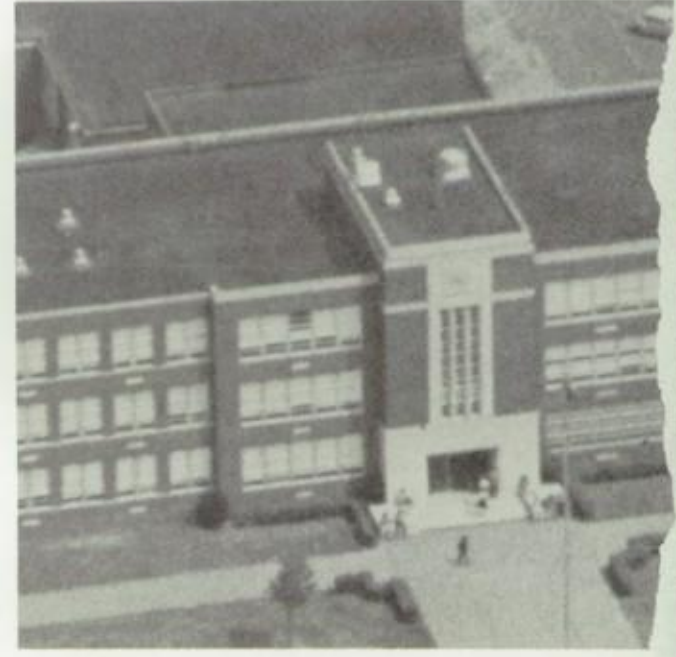

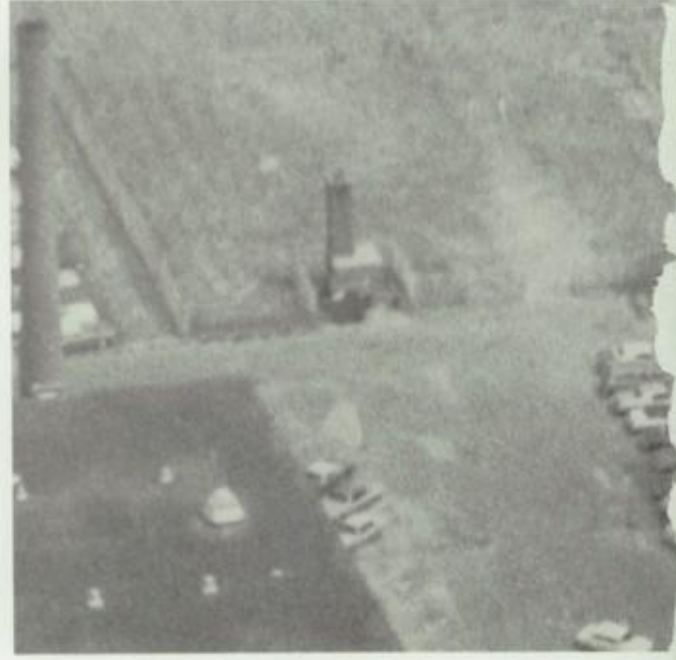

It is hard to explain the need for close friendships, but it can be seen everywhere. Wherever one looked at Norview, he could see couples — in the library, in the parking lot, walking down the hallways. This was not just spring fever; it lasted from September to June. Some of the friendships lasted forever, and some were replaced. But one thing was for certain; all were important.

Senior Class Council of '78'

The Senior Class this year was one Norview shall always remember. Busy at achieving their highest goals, they had a very successful year. Dances and the selling of pendants were just a few of their many money-making projects. The Senior Banquet, Senior Week, and the long awaited prom held at the Tidewater Yacht Club were special moments that made their year one to treasure always.

The Nineteen Seventy-Eight

Tawana Nottingham begins the program.

Everyone is having a great time.

Baked potatoes and roast beef.

Marcel Lope provides part of the entertainment . . .

"One of the best Senior Banquets ever!" "Beautiful decorations." These were just a few of the comments describing the Senior Banquet. Under the direction of Mr. Singleton and certain members of the Senior Class, the Senior Banquet was a huge success. Senior officers provided the decorations which followed the theme "Looks Like We Made It." Following the roast beef dinner and entertainment, the awarding of the Senior Superlatives took place. March 14 will always remain special to the class of '78, for the closeness and unity that prevailed that night was unforgettable.

. . . which is received by a big round of applause.

Senior Banquet

"Looks Like We Made It."

Angela Lee is a very big hit.

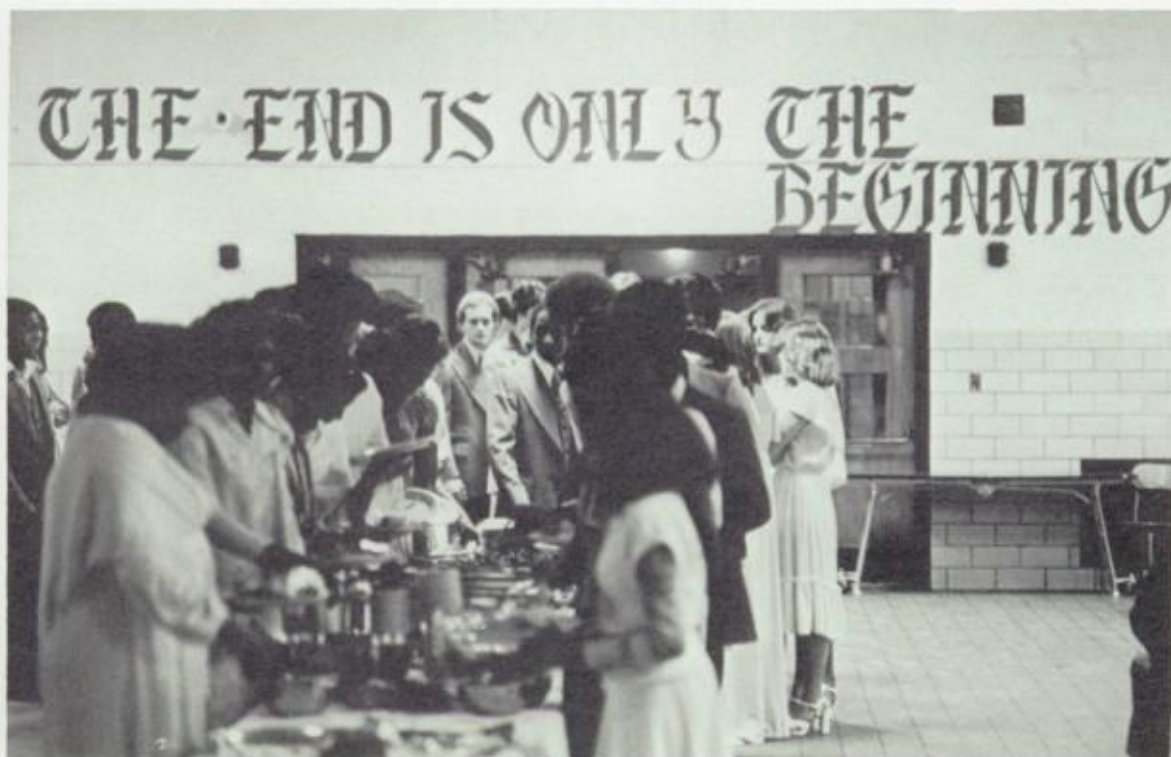

The Senior Class Officers give "Larry" Singleton a big hand.

Class President — Tawana Nottingham

The food sure is delicious.

The Sophomore Class Council was super busy this year preparing for their future years here at Norview. A bake sale and a dance held in March were just a few of the activities they headed. Homecoming '77 was a memorable event; the Sophomore Class float came in first place in the parade of Homecoming floats. The outlook for the future of these students is bright as they are building now towards one of the best classes Norview will hope to see.

PRINCIPALS

Mr. Charles W. Perdue, who has been principal of Norview High School since 1955, has shown great concern not only for the students at Norview but also for the teachers and parents. Mr. James Brown, Assistant Principal for General Administration, handles disciplinary action and the scheduling of students. He is also in charge of the athletic program here at Norview. Dr. Margaret Saunders, Assistant Principal of Instruction, works with the curriculum of phase electives and assists department heads and teachers. Mr. Woodrow Franklin is in charge of student activities and works with student scheduling. These four administrators serve as one excellent team and, along with the rest of the faculty, constitute a fine staff.

Homecoming

Everyone always told me that I had a good aim.

You think they're trying to tell us something?

Let it roll!

This thing gets heavy after a while, you know!

Could it be Nadia?

The Martians have landed!

Spirit Week

Norview's Spirit never dies!

Bums, Robots, Boxers, Martians, Fonzie's and Gymnasts were what a visitor to Norview would have observed the week of October 24-28. What an onlooker might not have known was that it was the week of Homecoming '77. Bum Day, Olympic Day, Past Day, Future Day, and Blue and White Day were just a few of the many activities taking place that week. Spirit was at an all time high, especially at the Pep Rally, held on the afternoon of the game, where students cheered and chanted with the cheerleaders. It was all in preparation for the big game, Norview vs. Bayside, where Norview was victorious. The night of Homecoming was a spectacular one. Pregame activities included the parade of floats, and at halftime, the anxiously awaited crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Ms. Raedene Finnell, took place. The S.C.A. sponsored a dance in the school cafeteria, featuring sounds of Bobby Roscoe. Spirit Week added to the memories of Homecoming '77.

Some people just never grow up!

What do you mean, Do I play football?

The evening of October 28, 1977, was a night that the members of the court did sparkle and shine. The five lovely ladies were parading with their escorts before an anxious crowd which waited in unbearable suspense, for no one knew who the 77-78 Homecoming Queen would be. The moment had almost arrived. After Ms. Terri Sullivan was announced Maid of Honor, there was silence, for the special moment had come. "Ms. Raedene Finnell-1977-78 Homecoming Queen!" The crowd roared and applauded as the Queen was crowned by retiring Queen Sheree Hodnett. The night was special, in every way.

Highlights of many of the athletes' and coaches' year here at Norview were the sports banquets, held bi-annually: spring and fall. On the evening of these events, activities included dinner, the presentation of awards to the outstanding athletes, and a review of the year's victories and defeats. Togetherness and unity were prevalent for both coaches and athletes as they both played a big part in the excitement that sports brought to Norview.

We, the Pilot Staff, realized just how important your high school memories were to you. Whether it was the arrival of football season, the excitement of Homecoming, or the prom — it is all here. We have done our best in presenting this 77-78 school year in these pages. Now, after long and frustrating hours of work, we give to you a golden treasure of special times and people — the '78 Pilot.

1977-78 marked a new beginning for the Piloteer, under the direction of Miss Goranflo. The Piloteer, Norview's literary magazine, is composed of poems, essays, and stories written by the students of Norview. The actual publication was done by these talented students, better known as the Piloteer Staff.

Norview's Drum Major gets down with the band during half-time.

There was never a dull moment around the halls and campus of Norview due to the lively sounds of the Norview Band. At concerts, games, assemblies or parades, their jazzy beat added a touch of life to the entertainment they provided. They performed the well-known and popular tunes of today as well as the old and well remembered tunes of the past. Their hard work made their year a very successful and satisfying one.

Majorettes

Under the superior direction of Mary Kay Corbett, the majorettes had an enjoyable and rewarding year representing Norview at football games and parades where they provided excellent entertainment. However, their job did not end there. Along with parades and games, these girls helped hold a Tiny Tots Concert for nursery and elementary school children. Coordination and timing were among their goals as was the hard work that they exhibited all year long. Hats off to a super group of girls who deserved much more recognition than they received.

NORVIEW FLAG CORPS

The Flag Corps has only been in existence for two years, but because of the long hours of drilling and a tremendous amount of patience, they were a colorful success. The organization provided fine entertainment for Norview's home football games. "Practice makes perfect," and it did for these girls.

"HARVEY"

Harvey, a three-act play presented by the Norview Players, is about a man who chose imagination over reality. Despite opposition from his family, Elwood P. Dowd created and lived out his fantasies with his invisible friend Harvey, a six foot one and a half inch rabbit. The moral of the play was that "sometimes it is better to be pleasant than smart."

FORENSICS

Lori Fortner.

Of the many organizations here at Norview that offer help to the minds and lives of the students, Forensics has to be tops. Forensics allowed the students to improve their ability in the fields of public speaking, dramatic interpretation, and other oratorical categories. Competition ranged from district to regional to state contests. As important as Forensics is, it does not get the recognition it truly deserves.

DEBATE

Opinions and attitudes, along with justifications for them, were just a few things that made up the minds of the Debate Team members. Confidence, knowledge, common sense, and a quick mind were what all these students had in common in making the Debate Team of Norview one of specific importance.

Captains — Cheryl Wilson, Joe Carvalho, Brian Heywood.

Girls And Boys State

Ana Gower, Gwen Pritchard.

During the last week of school, twelve young men and women were missed from the crowded halls of Norview. What was the reason for the absence of these students? They were excused to go to Girls and Boys State, a program which allowed them to learn more about the state government and how it is run. Although reactions to this week varied, all agreed it was enjoyable.

Governor's School

For one full month during the summer, Allen Jarrell, one of Norview's finest students, attended the Governor's School for the Gifted. This program gave him the opportunity to learn more about his career choice. A full day's schedule included classes in the morning, research and study period, afternoon classes, and free time. One of Allen's chosen classes was drama. Allen concluded that the experience was one he'll never forget.

Allen Jarrell.

ROTC SPECIAL TEAMS

The N.J.R.O.T.C. Drill Team played a big part in the entertainment here at Norview this year. They participated in various parades, and they also performed at football games and assemblies where their performances were spectacular. Hard work and endless hours of practice were part of the daily routine of these students. Recognition goes to Chief Patterson and Captain Nicholson for their instruction and help throughout the year.

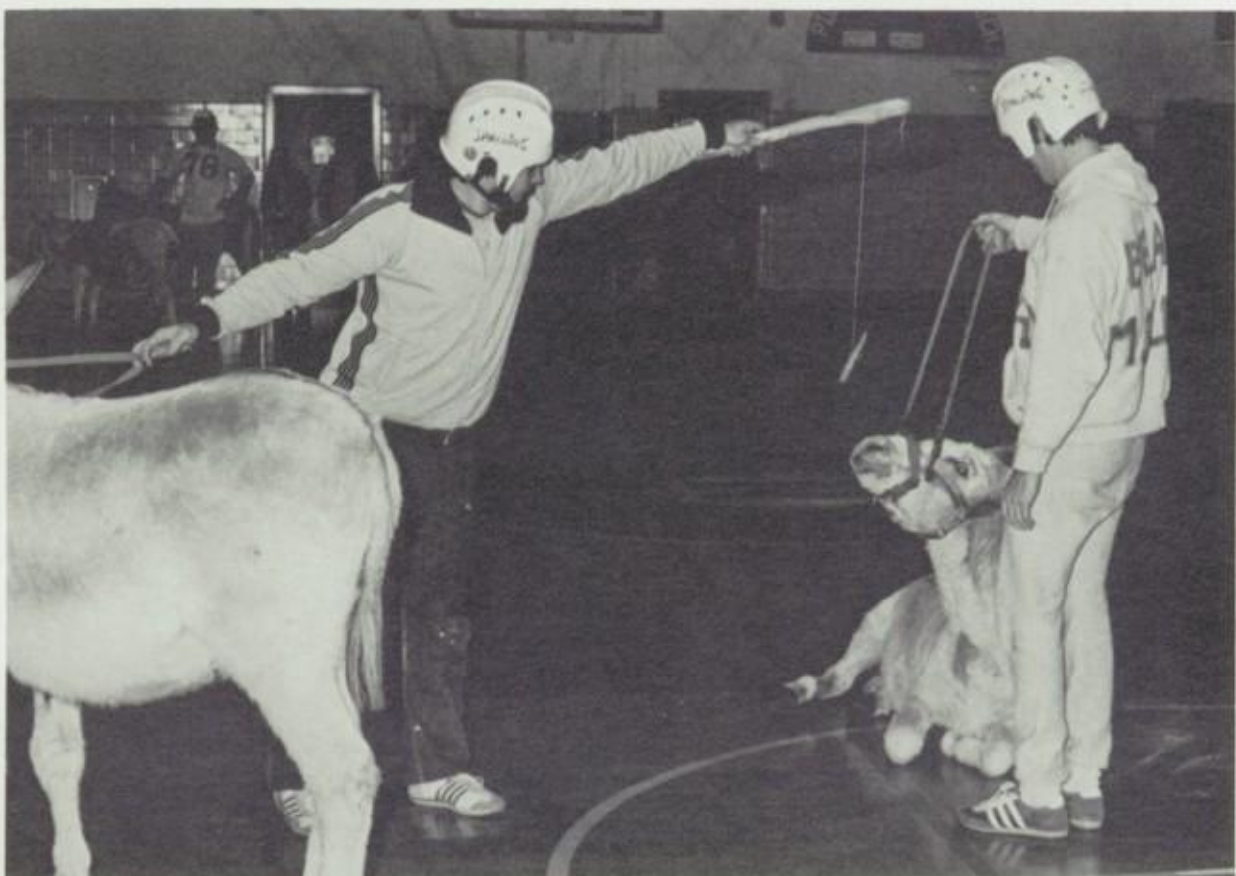

Rifle Team — Front row: J. Chandler, D. Kirk, K. Donald, T. Araguz, S. Ferdinand. Back row: K. Morris, J. Martin, C. Hall, S. West, J. Parkman.

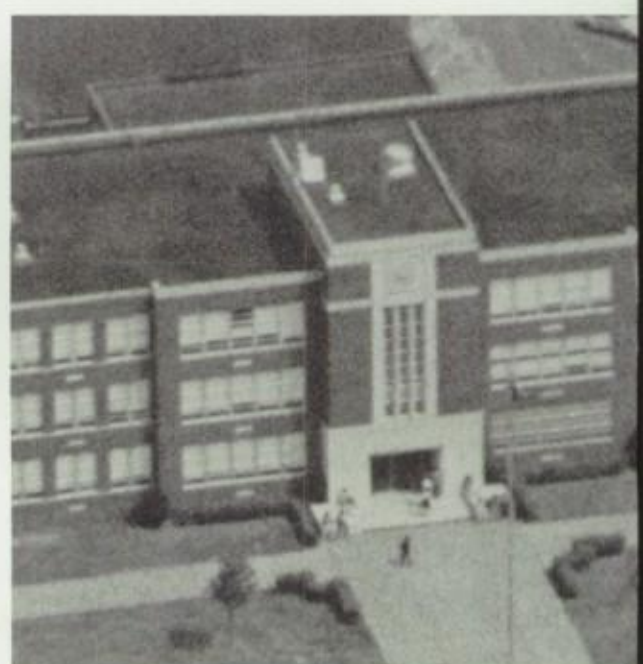

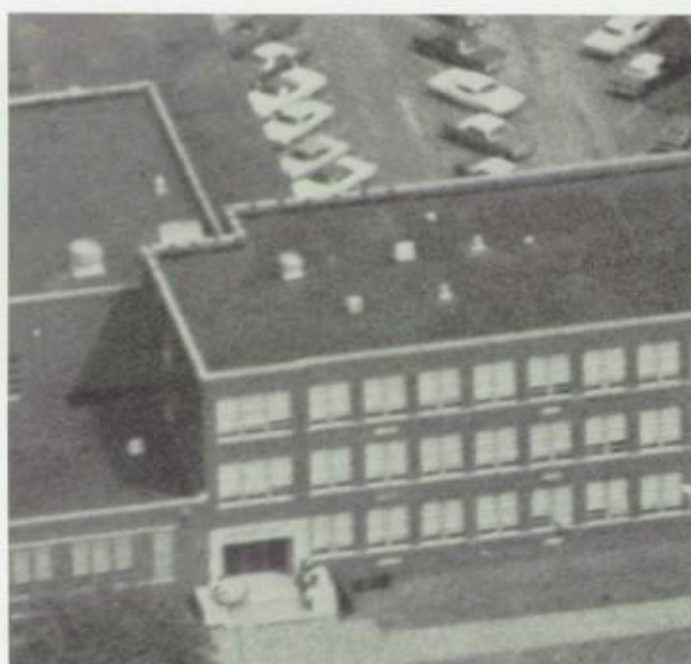

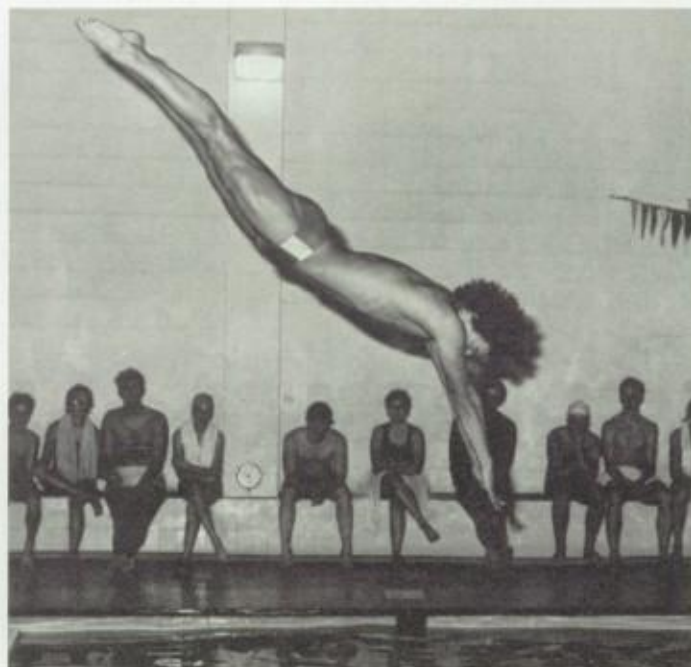

Donkey Basketball

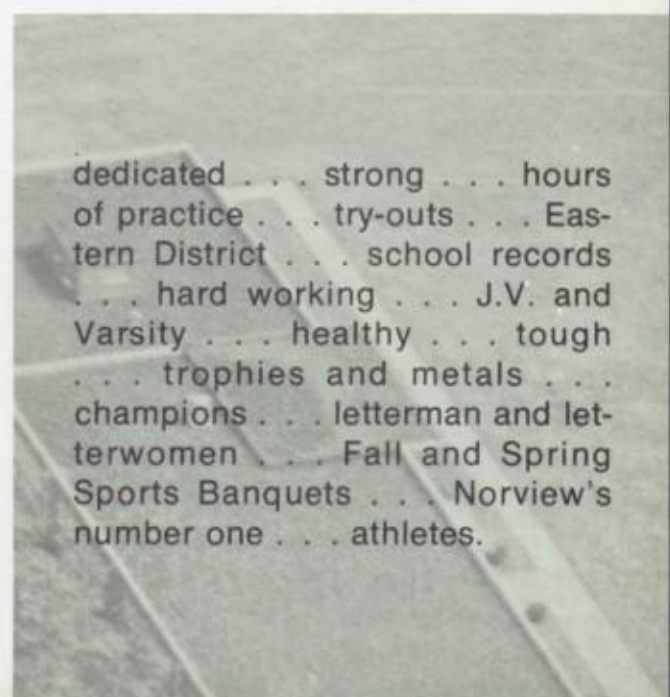

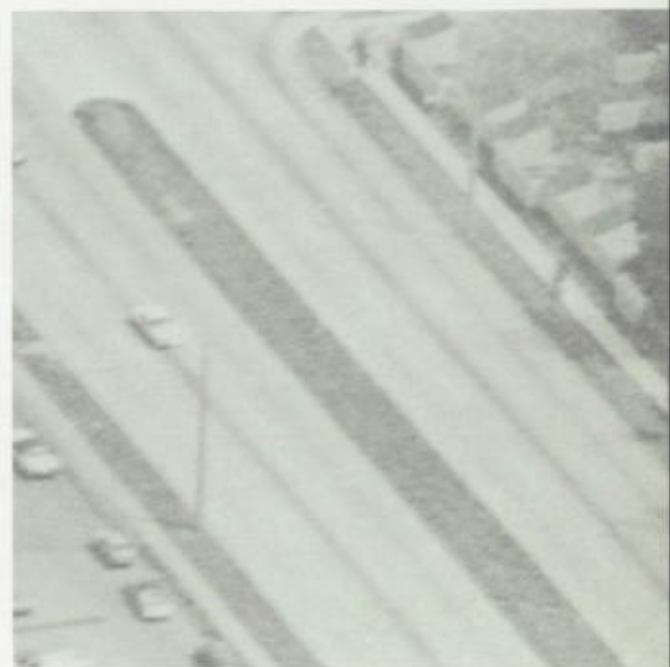

One of the many highlights of the students' and the teachers' year here at Norview was the third annual Donkey Basketball Game sponsored by the Boosters Club. This event provided excellent entertainment for the young as well as the old. The future looks very bright for these games as they have become a favorite at Norview.

We jump for the sky

Norview's spirit was at an all time high this year under the direction of fifteen spirited and lovely young ladies. These girls practiced every day throughout the summer in preparation for summer camp in Richmond. These practices paid off, for the Varsity Squad came in first place, receiving three superior ribbons and one excellent ribbon, the spirit stick, and, most important, a competitive experience which they will never forget. Throughout the year, these girls were engaged in various activities which included pinning players, selling ribbons, decorating for sports banquets, and painting signs for games. They also headed many fund raising projects such as selling trash cans, sponsoring dances, and holding car washes.

Mr. Clean.

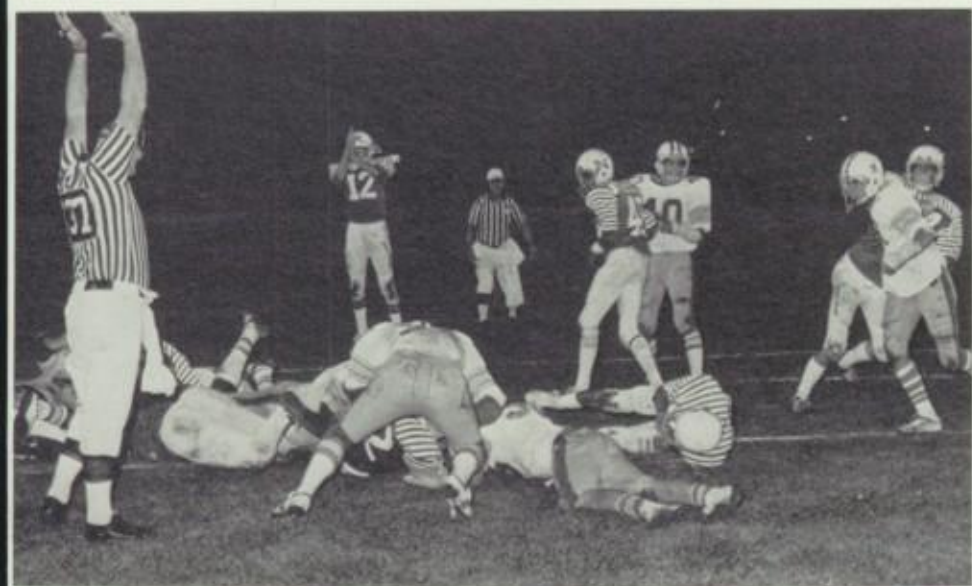

Rodney Brown with a little extra effort.

The 1977 varsity football team started the season with an unexpected loss to Maury. However, this loss did not stop their winning spirit but only increased their efforts to win, and win they did. The Pilots went on to win the Eastern District and become the Eastern Regional Runner-up.

In pre-season predictions, the Pilots were picked to win the Eastern District. But after the Maury game, the news media had their doubts. Whether or not the Pilots would win the Eastern District and earn a berth to a Regional playoff was not decided until the last game of the season between first place Maury and last place Granby. A win for Maury would give them the Eastern District while a tie or loss would give the Pilots the title. The Norview cheerleaders and a letter from Coach Tata were sent to Granby to give them extra support. With the entire Norview football team and their spectators rooting in the stands, the Granby Comets defeated the Maury Commodores to give the Pilots the Eastern District title and a berth in Eastern Regional playoffs. The Pilots defeated the Beach District Champion, Kellam, in the first round of the playoffs, and then they were handed a defeat by the Hampton Crabbers, who later became the State Champions. All in all "it was a good year."

J.V. Does It Again

Sporting the best defense in the district, the J. V. football team were sure winners. Recording six shutouts, the defense paved the way to a 6-0-0 record. Anchored by Mike Gillilan and Mike Holloway, the defense held opponents to minimum yardage. Offensively, the passing of Richard Reinerth and the running of Curtis Payne led the attack. Under the super coaching of John Tigmo and Keith Dyer, the J.V. football team overcame adversaries with overwhelming power.

The sixteen spirited J.V. cheerleaders started their season with outstanding, excellent, and superior ribbons and came in third for the Grand Champions at the I.C.F. Cheering Camp held at the University of Richmond. They also received the spirit "fire cracker" one night. They cheered the J.V. football team to an undefeated season. They made name "tags" for the football, girls' hockey, wrestling, and basketball players and sold "M&M's" for their "new look" in basketball uniforms. With the support of sponsors Mrs. Jaye Ross and Mrs. JoAnne Fisher, the J.V. cheerleaders completed a very successful season.

Sherry and her perfect form.

A new coach, some promising new girls, and seven returning letterwomen equaled success for the 1977-78 girls varsity swim team. The girls' team was, without a doubt, the hardest working team Norview has ever had. Working out in the weight room after school, swimming over 2000 yards every day and practicing from 8:00 to 10:00 on Saturday mornings was what helped the team to win a fourth place in Eastern District. Most outstanding in district were Mary Carter, Renee Meador, Pat Canady, and Cheryl Wilson, who won bronze medals in the 400 yard freestyle relay.

Quality, not quantity, is what counts in swimming, and the 1977-78 boys varsity swim team proved this. With only nine swimmers to compete in eight individual and two four-man events, there were often problems deciding who would swim which events. Although involved with the swim team for the first time, Coach Radovich did an outstanding job leading the boys to a third place in Eastern District. Two gold, seven silver, and four bronze medals were won. Most outstanding in district were freshman Stanley Wilson, with a city record in the 500 yard freestyle, and sophomore Larry Rios, with a first place in diving. With the loss of only one senior, Captain Winston Chelf, the 1979 swim team should be equal to, if not better than, this year's squad.

Here we come.

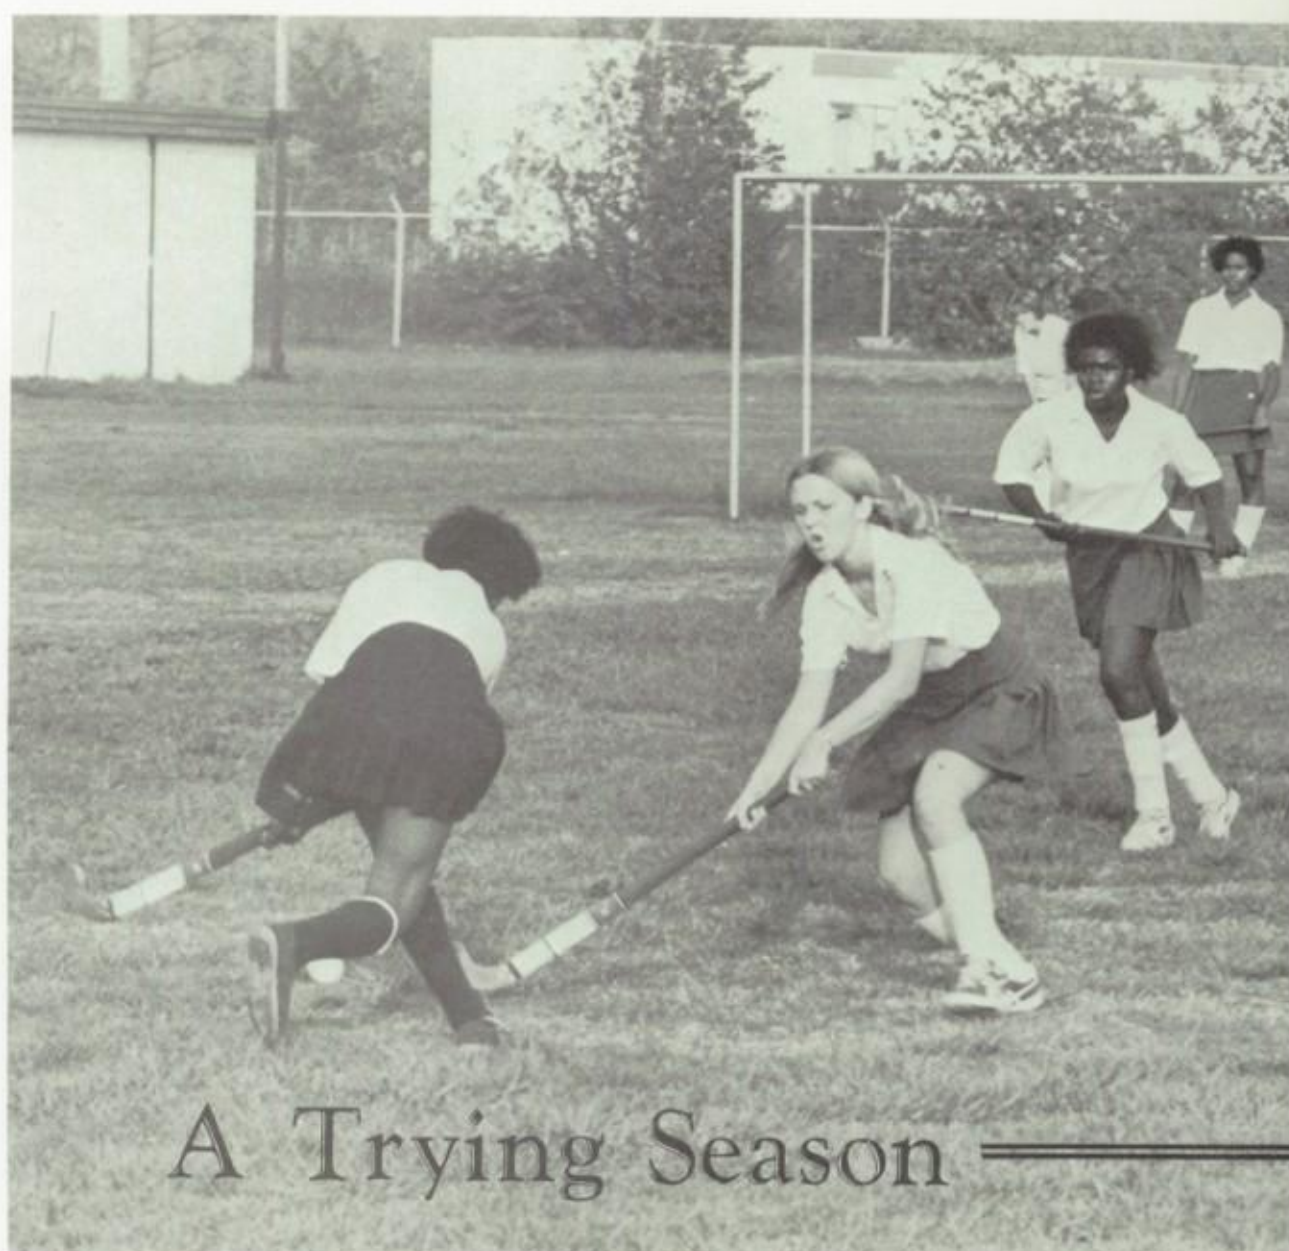

"Norview's cross country team has won the Eastern District Championship." As these words of Mr. Brown were heard over the loud speaker, applause and cheers were heard throughout the school. The 1977 undefeated cross country team profited from the strong performances by Keefe Dew, Walt Green, and Anthony Elliott. Walt Green came in first place against Washington and Maury, while Keefe Dew led the Pilots against Granby. In the district meet, Keefe Dew, Walt Green, and Anthony Elliott placed in the top five runners to lead Norview to the title. Norview also got a strong effort from Chris Foster, who finished tenth place. Their season showed how the team, through physical conditioning and mental determination, made a great contribution to Norview sports.

Kneeling: Mike Smith, Vernon Bell, Byron Cherry, Keefe Dew, Chris Foster, and Hamp Anderson. Standing: Ronald Webster, Hadley Evans, Walt Green, Anthony Elliott, Craig Caldwell, and Nathaniel Leary.

When varsity field hockey was started in Tidewater in 1976, little interest was shown by Norview students. This year things changed, and it grew in popularity. With a great deal of care, Coach Parker was able to change raw recruits into experienced and dedicated field hockey players. Next year, with many returning players, Norview is planning to have a bigger and better season.

As usual, the Norview girls basketball team had a spectacular season this year with a 14-2 record, putting them in first place in standings. They went on to win the Eastern District and Regional Tournaments, and to come in second in State.

The girls had a terrific offense. Delys Brooks and Jan Logan were leading scorers, averaging 20 points and 13 points a game respectively. With Coach Peggy Fardette and Mr. Earl Bryant encouraging them, the girls practiced hard, sometimes three hours a day. To say they had a great season would be an understatement.

The boys varsity basketball team's record did not tell the whole story. Even though the team did not end up with a winning record, many players continued to work hard throughout the season and improved their skills. The team's strong will to overcome enabled them to pull off two major upsets during the season — one over the number one team in the district and the other in the first round of the district tournament. Next year, Norview must rely heavily on four returning lettermen and an undefeated J.V. team to carry the load.

In Eastern District competition, Norview's Junior Varsity had the best season that could be offered, 16-0. To gain this perfect record, the J.V.'s showed excellent defensive and offensive skills. The "Baby" Pilots overwhelmed opponents, easily winning the Eastern District championship. With their great size and jumping ability, the J.V.'s are "Big" hopes for the future.

WE'VE PINNED...

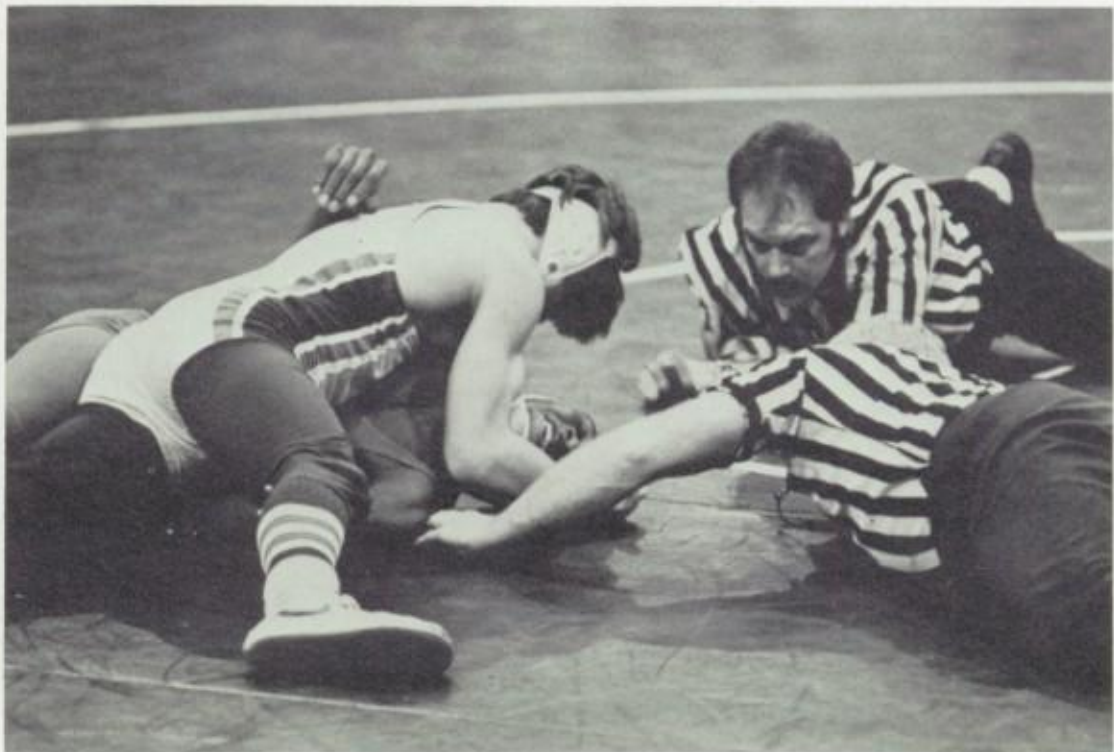

In years past, winning has been the name of the game, and this year was no different. The Pilots started their successful season by winning the Norfolk Academy Tournament and ended it by winning the Eastern District Tournament, thus earning the title Eastern District Champions. Averaging 33 points per match, Norview was able to produce a duel meet record of 8 and 4. Here are but a few of the many outstanding wrestlers on Norview's wrestling team: Russell Moore (First in District, Fourth in Region, Fourth in State); Von Freudenberg (First in District, First in Region, Fifth in State); Chris Garner (First in District, Fourth in Region, Third in State). Not only was Coach Whitley proud of these young men, but he was also proud of the rest of the team for keeping Norview in the winning tradition.

Of the many places the Latin Club is going, one is not the "poor house." The hunger of Norview students helped finance their trip to Roanoke for the J.C.L. Convention where Kenny Whitaker took fourth place in an arts and crafts exhibit. The club also visited Disney World and Sea World during their spring break. They mended their battle-weary chariot for the Olympic Procession at Homecoming. Fun and Friendship

Fun and Friendship is what PHILOS has been all year. Members of the club succeeded in having the times of their lives! They started the year with a weekend camping trip for all new members, an event that won't be forgotten. Visiting nursing homes and the Kings Daughter's Hospital were just a few of PHILOS' service projects. One of the school projects was the traditional streaming of the cars during football season to keep up the school spirit!! A football game against Omega, a ski trip in February, a party and an end-of-the-year camping trip were some of the activities of the year. "Hey, Be Quiet!" were Charlie's most famous words at the weekly meetings that made possible the club's accomplishments.

One tradition that Omega has kept through the years is wrapping the goal posts before the football games. This tradition was continued in 1977-1978, a year which proved to be one filled with spirit and enthusiasm. Some of the various activities that Omega sponsored were dances, the annual Alumni Christmas Party, Christmas caroling, the making of holiday favors for the teachers, the making of a Homecoming float, a football game with Philos, cheering contests at football games, horseback riding, camping and bake sales. During baseball season, members made Easter baskets for the baseball players. Since Omega sponsors the baseball team, they gave a party for the players at the end of the season. 1977-1978 was a year full of activities and fun.

MAKING NEW FRIENDS

Ask any Keyette what she remembered about the past year, and she will answer with enthusiasm, "Our ski trip!" She was talking about the two days and one evening the Keyettes spent at Wintergreen. For those who had been before, skiing was easy, but for others it took a little more time and a lot more effort. Some agreed that the lodge was a much nicer and safer place. Everyone had her share of complaining, falling, and freezing, which was natural when learning how to snow plow down the beginners slope. All felt the trip was a big success. The Keyettes were involved with other activities too. They gave a Christmas party for less fortunate children. The girls made money having bake sales, which enabled them to have dances, parties and a camping trip at the end of the year.

If there were an award for the club that caused the most problems, Interact would have been the number one nomination for it. It took four months just to get all the members together for their picture. Finally, on deadline day, the pictures arrived just in time. Deciding on the appropriate club name was another major problem. Because of Interact's past reputation, the members felt a new name would help create a new image for them. They considered three different names, but, feeling none of them just right, they returned to the original. This year's members had a great time and created the new, better reputation they wanted to.

Ice Cream, Ice Cream!

During the school year, Vanguard was involved in many activities, but probably the biggest event was the good ol' Ice Cream Eating Contest. The contest was for those athletes with big eyes and big tummies. On the "Go" signal, ice cream of all flavors was popping into mouths. The quickest eater was, no doubt, Chris Garner. Vanguard has decided to make it an annual event. In February, they held their Sweetheart Dance. Vanguard kept up their community spirit by donating money to the Joy Fund and sponsoring dances. Vanguard's motto this year was "to have further knowledge and a better relationship between the races." The club wanted to end the year just right, so they took a trip to King's Dominion!!

Letter Bearers

The halls of Norview were filled with many students wearing blue jackets on which were proudly displayed the big letter 'N'. Students earned these monograms by participating in various sports such as football, basketball, wrestling, swimming, baseball, tennis, track, and golf. Unlike other clubs, they did not hold regular meetings, but they somehow still kept busy under the guidance of sponsor J.T. Sykes. Their major activity was a field trip to Washington D.C. to see the Baltimore Colts play the New England Patriots.

The Distributive Education Clubs of America develop future leaders for the fields of marketing and distribution. The members have fun, but, at the same time, they learn valuable concepts about marketing, one of the most rapidly expanding areas in the business world today. Most DECA members hold jobs, so essentially they earn while they learn. This year Norview's DECA held several social events, contests, and a final awards program. The contests allowed the student to win recognition for his school, for his business establishment, and for himself.

The Student Co-operative Association was busy this year striving for their two main goals: promoting school spirit and getting students involved in school activities. One of their projects included Homecoming Week, where there were five dress-up days, a pep rally, the election of the Homecoming Queen, and a dance held in the cafeteria after the game. Fund raising projects included selling calendars and sponsoring a dance. All in all, it was a very exciting and challenging year for the SCA.

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is an organization that prepares the working students for their future business careers. Under the sponsorship of Mr. McGrath (Hekyll), the ICT classes enjoyed learning the business trades and leadership training. But the course was not all work and no play. With the help of the enthusiastic sponsor, the club competed in district and state parliamentary procedure contests. 1977-78 was a good year for VICA. Brenda, Karen, and Wanda enjoyed themselves Homecoming night in their creative float to represent ICT. Dances with Bobby Rascoe, trips to state contests, and a Christmas party made the year a barrel of fun.

Brenda, Karen, and Wanda had a barrel of fun.

Planning For Tomorrow

Tomorrow's Leaders

The Future Business Leaders of America, sponsored by Mr. Harris and Mrs. Duke, is a national organization that introduces the students to the world of business through five key areas, business knowledge and skills and financial, social, and community activities. Business knowledge was increased through the aid of speakers and competition in parliamentary procedure and business law. Business skills were stressed through participation in the monthly spelling test, math test, and competition on the city, region, and state level in typing and shorthand. To raise money for their activities, the chapter sold doughnuts and candles and sponsored a dance, a carwash, and a bake sale. Social activities included the Installation/Induction Ceremony and a Christmas party. For community service, the chapter participated in night school registration, PTA registration, the March of Dimes Telerama, and the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon. The year ended with a Teacher Appreciation Day. All in all, the FBLA had a fabulous year!

If you smelled something good cooking on the first floor of Norview High, you knew F.H.A. was at work. F.H.A. is a service organization which promotes leadership in the home and community. During the 1977-1978 school year, they engaged in fund raising projects for local hospitals. During the year they gave a Christmas Open House for the faculty, and they listened to guest speakers.

F.H.A. members helped serve at the Christmas Open House.

Point of Order!

Point of order, Madame President.

Norview's newest club was Parliamentary Procedures, under the sponsorship of Mr. High. This club was created to introduce students to the inner workings of proper club operations. The members learned the rules and regulations concerning the actual make-up of the agenda and the correct methodology to present and pass motions. Majority, minority, and individual rights were protected when parliamentary procedures were used.

Pat Canady welcomes everyone to the Quill and Scroll Banquet.

The major activity of Quill and Scroll was the annual banquet held this year at The Barn. This year's banquet was the biggest and the best. The students and sponsors enjoyed a delicious steak dinner. Speeches were made by Pat Canady, Editor of the Pilot, Mike Weller, Editor of the Co-Pilot, and Miss Goranflo, Sponsor of the Piloteer. The students were presented with Quill and Scroll pins, and pictures were made.

Journalists Honored

What would Homecoming be without the National Honor Society? During Homecoming week students and faculty alike were looking for members of the N.H.S. so they could purchase a big blue and white Homecoming corsage. The selling of these corsages launched a year full of activities for the club. Thanksgiving found them busy collecting canned goods and money to donate to a needy family. Throughout the year, members of the N.H.S. were also sponsors for a child. At Christmas and other holidays they sent her many gifts. Those members who worked so hard all year rewarded themselves with a fun ski trip in the winter and a successful camping trip in the spring.

Striving For The Future

"Let's Jump and Shout"

"Let's Jump and Shout." The Pep Club helped keep the spirit up at pep rallies, football games, and assemblies. This being their second year, it was an active and exciting one. Members helped the cheerleaders by painting signs for the halls and the football field fence. They also attended the basketball games, baseball games and wrestling matches. The selling of candy and doughnuts was very profitable for the club throughout the year.

Synchronized marching was the trademark of the Norview Drill Team, which performed during half-times at school games, for elementary schools, and in local parades. Their most important performance, however, took place at the Kings' Dominion Drill Team Competition, where they competed against drill teams from throughout the state. To pay for these activities, the group had several money making projects including a Valentine Dance, candy sales, and donut sales. The money was used for uniforms and transportation to various events. Their activities were important to Norview High School.

Learning to Be Leaders

Physical Education Leadership Training helps to train students for future teaching jobs in the field of P.E. The students received instruction in the classroom; later they assisted Mrs. Daniels, the physical education teacher at Norview Elementary. This gave them valuable first hand teaching experience. School sponsors of P.E.L.T. were Ms. Alexander and Mr. Holloway. This program has proven to be extremely successful.

The Players

Under the supervision of Mrs. Beckett, the Norview Players had a most enjoyable year. These hard working and dedicated young students did their absolute finest in bringing drama to the lives of their audiences. One example this year was the play "Harvey." The Norview Players did this play for students, teachers, parents, and friends for three nights in the Norview auditorium. It proved to be a great success.
